Description. Tribal societies with social stratification under a single (or dual) leader emerged in the Neolithic period out of earlier tribal structures with little stratification, and they remained prevalent throughout the Iron Age.. In the case of indigenous tribal societies existing within larger colonial and post-colonial states, tribal chiefs may represent their tribe or ethnicity in a ...

Custom in law is the established pattern of behavior that can be objectively verified within a particular social setting. A claim can be carried out in defense of "what has always been done and accepted by law." Related is the idea of prescription; a right enjoyed through long custom rather than positive law.. Customary law (also, consuetudinary or unofficial law) exists where:

Old Marblehead Sea Captains and the Ships in Which They Sailed

The Native Americans of the northwest Pacific coast carved magnificent vertical columns in cedar. These columns, commonly known as "totem poles," were only created by tribes living along these coasts: from the Tlingit tribes in southeastern Alaska, to the Haida and Tsimshian tribes along both the mainland and island coasts of British Columbia, as far south as the Kwakiutl tribes on ...

Edit Description: Coastlines are the front lines of climate change: By storing large amounts of carbon and protecting vulnerable coastal communities from rising seas, coastal ecosystems help us both mitigate and adapt to the effects of climate change. But if destroyed or degraded, these ecosystems release this "blue carbon" into the atmosphere, further contributing to climate change.
